

Ann Stoddard, a native of South Carolina, holds a BFA from the University of South Carolina and an MFA in sculpture and printmaking from Cranbrook Academy of Art. She has been exhibiting her paintings, drawings, sculptures, and performance work in galleries and museums nationally and internationally for over two decades. Her work is held in numerous collections throughout the United States as well as Canada, Europe and China.

Stoddard is also an adjunct faculty member with the Art Department at Converse University and part-time curator at Harper Gallery at Presbyterian College. She currently resides and maintains a studio in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Photo by Sebastian Piras